QUINCY 2000 COLLABORATIVE

The Economic Development Agency of
The Quincy Chamber of Commerce

Assistance programs to help start-up and existing businesses grow and prosper in the City of Quincy.

Quincy 2000 is the Economic Development arm of the Quincy Chamber of Commerce, providing a variety of small business assistance programs to help start-up and existing businesses grow and prosper in the City of Quincy.

"Quincy 2000 played an instrumental role in the development of my business plan and securing start-up financing for my new business."

Keith Asack - Keep The Edge Studios

SMALL BUSINESS COUNSELING

One-on-One Small Business Counseling is available to help aspiring entrepreneurs and seasoned professionals write a business plan and obtain guidance on legal, financing, staffing, and marketing needs.

Small Business Development Partners include:

Massachusetts Small Business Development Center Network

UMASS BOSTON

SBA U.S. Small Business Administration

City of Quincy Massachusetts

PERMITTING AND LICENSING ASSISTANCE

Permitting and Licensing assistance is available to guide individuals through the local approval process.

The Quincy Business Guide identifies the permitting process and available resources to open a business in the City of Quincy.

SITE FINDER SERVICES

Site Finder Services are available to help individuals locate and evaluate a commercial space to ensure it fulfills the needs and objectives of the business, and meets local and state building code requirements.

SMALL BUSINESS LOANS

Small Business Loans ranging from $25,000 - $200,000 are available to start-up and existing Quincy businesses for equipment purchases, leasehold improvements and working capital. Business Financing is provided thru the City of Quincy CDBG Program and the Quincy Loan Pool which is supported by our local banking partners.

LOAN POOL IS SUPPORTED BY:

Bank of Canton – We're like family.
Braintree Cooperative Bank
Colonial Federal Savings Bank – "Your neighborhood bank!"
Eastern Bank
NorthEast Community Bank
MountainOne Bank
South Shore Bank – ...just better

Members of the Quincy Loan Pool are supported by Mayor Koch and Quincy Chamber representatives.

TRAINING PROGRAMS AND WORKSHOPS

Quincy 2000 sponsors a variety of entrepreneurial training programs and workshops throughout the year to guide individuals interested in starting a business.

Nuts & Bolts OF BUSINESS SUCCESS

Workshops include a five-week intensive Business Launch training program.

QUINCY CENTER FOR INNOVATION

Quincy 2000 oversees the Quincy Center for Innovation, a 20,000 sq.ft. cooperative office environment providing inexpensive office space with a variety of services and amenities to help start-up and early phase companies grow and expand in the city of Quincy. Visit QuincyInno.com for more information.

Entrepreneurs collaborating at the Quincy Center for Innovation.

CELEBRATE YOUR NEW BUSINESS

Ribbon Cutting assistance to celebrate the grand opening of your new business in the city of Quincy.

City and business leaders will join you and your team in celebrating the opening of your business.

Quincy Chamber of Commerce
180 Old Colony Avenue
Quincy, MA 02170
617-471-1700
TheQuincyChamber.com

City of Quincy
Massachusetts

City of Quincy
Office of Economic Development
1305 Hancock Street
Quincy, MA 02169
617-376-1168
QuincyMA.gov